

Topic: Ancient Rome

Comparing different ancient civilisations and placing them on a timeline.

Looking at the Roman Lifestyle.

Considering the question 'Why are the Romans famous?'

Who was Julius Caesar?

The Roman Empire and its Army.

Hadrian's Wall and the Romanisation of Britain.

Literacy, Drama and SPaG:

Class Book: Escape from Pompeii by Christina Balit.

Creating and describing plots, settings and characters.

Using language features of narrative such as opening, build up, climax, resolution and ending.

Introducing clauses.

Using paragraphs correctly to group ideas.

Write complex sentences using a range of conjunctions such as although, despite, for etc.

Maths:

Number

Mental addition and subtraction using 3-digit numbers.

Dividing with remainders.

Compact column addition and subtraction.

Consolidation of fraction learning.

Shape, space and measures

Capacity

Weight

Time

Money

Music:

Steel Pans with Bristol Plays Music.

We will continue to explore the following;

- * Scales and notation
- * Rhythm
- * Melodies

French:

Classroom instructions such as listen, sit down and asking to go to the toilet.

Developing our conversational skills.

Continuing to explore the French culture.

PE:

Swimming once a week.

Cricket

Rounders

Computing: Opinion Pollsters

The children will create a survey and use the data that they gather to create charts and graphs. They will then present the results of their survey to the class.

Jigsaw

Our puzzle this term is called 'Changing Me'. Through this we will be looking at the following areas;

- * How babies grow
- * Outside body changes
- * Changes inside the body
- * Looking ahead to Year 4 and preparing for this

Art:

Exploring the work of Andy Goldsworthy and creating work for the Arts Trail using natural mediums such as sticks, grass, stones, beans and lentils.

Exploring and creating Roman mosaics using foam tiles.

Designing & creating Roman shields.

RE:

Key Question: Why do religious books and teachings matter?

Question and answer session with a visitor about aspects of Islam, including Ramadan.

Thinking about forgiveness and related bible parable, e.g. The Prodigal Son.