Summer week 9: 30.6.2017

SPORTS DAY

Please may we apologise for having to rearrange the date for sports day. Forecasts at the start of the week were poor and that information, together with the huge downpour we had on Wednesday, contributed to our decision. Safety is always the key factor when making such a decision, and we felt there could be too much surface water on the field meaning it would not be safe. The new date is pencilled in for 12th July so please pray for good weather. Parents are very welcome to attend, as in previous years.

READING RECOVERY AWARD

Next Friday, I will be travelling to London with Mrs McGovern and Mrs Wear to collect the award for Reading recovery school of the year. We will be attending the event at the international Literacy Centre. Most of you will know Mrs McGovern as our highly skilled reading recovery teacher, and Mrs Wear is our lead practitioner in school who is responsible for teaching and learning of Literacy as a whole. I am immensely proud of them both, and I am sure that anyone whose child has benefitted from reading recovery sessions will understand how valuable and effective an intervention it is. Gian will also be attending with his family as he received the 'Reading Recovery Writer of the Year' award. We will be sure to share photos of the event next week. Watch this space.

TRANSITION DAY

If your child is in year 6, please remember that on Wednesday your child will be spending the day at their new secondary school. Please ensure they get their on time to make full advantage of their day. We hope they have a fantastic time.

Those children who are not in year 6 need to come to school as normal but they too will be spending the morning with their new teacher in their new classroom. We have already noticed how much more grown up the children are seeming - they are all ready for the next stage in their education.

BOOKFAIR

Our book fair has now arrived in school. We try to keep this to a yearly event and always try to negotiate a deal with the company so we can offer you the very best value for money. The deal we have managed to secure on this occasion is 'BOGOF' (Buy one get one free) The cheapest book in any pair will be totally free. The fair will be open every morning before school and after school from Monday 3rd July to Friday 7th July (morning only) The children will have the opportunity to visit the book fair with their class so they can browse the books on offer. For EVERY BOOK purchased, children will be given a free raffle ticket and will be entered into a prize draw. The winner will receive a £25 voucher to spend online on any scholastic book. We hope to see as many of you there as possible.

DAILY PRAYER

Asking in Faith

Loving God, you long to shower me with blessings, to fill my life with good things, yet there are times when I frustrate your gracious purpose and deprive myself of the riches you so freely offer. I do not seek, so I do not find. I do not ask, so I do not receive. Forgive me the shallowness of my values and the limitations of my understanding. Teach me to set my heart on those things that have power to truly satisfy, which you so year to share with me. In the name of Christ, I ask it.

Lord Jesus Christ

Guide my thinking, my living and my praying, that I may discern your will, follow your way and receive your blessing.

Amen
