AFTER SCHOOL CLUBS

All of our clubs start on Monday of next week. We are delighted with the uptake, and it means that an amazing 54% are taking part in an after school club. This is amazing! It is things like this that enable us to achieve the bronze award from the 'School Games Team.'

We are passionate about improving the health and fitness of all of our children, so we will be continuing to run the 'Daily Dash' this year too.

WELCOME TO OUR OLD YEAR 6 CHILDREN

Today, all of the schools in our Unity cluster met at St. Thomas More church to come together as a family of faith to celebrate the start of a new school year. We were so happy to welcome back some of our old year 6 pupils, now a few weeks into year 7, to find out about how they have been getting on and to share their stories with those hoping to attend next year. We will hope to share some photos of it next week.

This week, all of the children have been designing mission statements to go on the front of each year group's RE books. The winners from each year were:

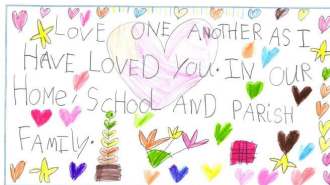

Year 1: Macy

Year 5: Maja

Year 2: Natalia

Year 6: Damien

Year 3: Yafiet

Well done, Children. You all did an amazing job!

Year 4: Oliwia

“Love one another, as I have loved you, in our home, school and parish families.”
