

SCHOOL NEWS

Dear Parent/Guardian,

We hope for good weather next week for our Year 6 pupils that are attending the Lakeside Residential next week. We are sure that they will have a fantastic time. Thank to parents/carers that were able to attend Parents Evening this week. It was great to see you in school and to have your support.

Kind regards, Mrs C Holgate

Children's University

Hopefully your child will have received their Children's University Learning Passport by now (if not you still have until Friday 20th to do this). We hope you enjoy obtaining passport stamps with your children. If you have any suggested venues/activities that your child attends that you would like to see accredited, please send the details into school and I will let the local co-ordinator know.

Arrangements for Departure for Lakeside Residential

- Children must come to school at the normal time.
- On arrival they will bring their belongings into the hall and receive the pre-departure briefing.
- Parents are welcome to return to school to wave their children off at 10.30 am.

Thank you for your continued support

Mrs C Holgate
Headteacher

Can you Help?

We are looking for volunteers to help out in school and/or to hear children read. It can be arranged for times that suit you and doesn't have to be for a full day - even a couple of hours would help. If you think you could help (or know somebody that can) please let the school office know.

We need you!
