volunteered to help with the cinema trip on the morning of Tuesday 21st November. We still require a few more adults to accompany the children. If you have a DBS check and are available to help, please get in touch with Miss Bailey on Class 7's door or email her on: m.bailey@ridgeway.derby.sch.uk

SWIMMING

A reminder that all children need to be bringing in a coat on swimming days. We do our best to ensure they do not have wet hair etc. but it is still cold walking back from the pool.

STAFF CHANGES ON THE DOORS AT THE START OF THE SCHOOL DAY

As you may noticed the morning door duty staff have moved round. The new arrangements will be:
Reception Door - Class 1, 2 and 3 Mrs Morris LM
Doors for Classes 4 and 5 Mrs Gray HT
Doors for Classes 6 and 7 Mrs Dale DHT
Door for Classes 8 and 9 Mrs Whitehead SBM

HEAD'S TEA

The children who will be invited to Head's Tea this Friday will be those children who have shown resilience.

try,
I can, can,
can!

SCHOOL PHOTOGRAPH ORDER REMINDER

The last day to return photograph orders to school is Thursday 2nd November 2017.

TEA AND TOAST

Our traditional end of term Tea and Toast event today was very well attended and raised lots of money for Macmillan. Thank you for your support and generosity.

YEAR 1 NOTICEBOARD

A message from the Year 1 team: A reminder to all Year 1 parents to look at the Year 1 notice board at the end of the corridor outside Class 5 (between the two external doors). This is where you can find information about our current topic, golden time, learn its and the weekly focus for Heads Tea.

POPPIES

We will be selling poppies in school after the half term break. For health and safety reasons the children will not be issued with pins– they will have their names written on any poppies they purchase.

Lest We Forget.

HOUSE of LORDS

In October Miss Bailey and Miss Bevins were delighted to be invited to attend a reception at the House of Lords to celebrate Swimathon's 30th Anniversary. Ridgeway has been proud to take part in Swimathon over the last few years and we are hoping to take part again next year.

KS1 CINEMA TRIP

Thank you to all of the parents/carers who have already
