Birthday Invitations

A polite reminder that although it is an ideal chance to send birthday invites to class mates; it is not the role for a teacher or teaching assistant to distribute invites into book bags. Please hand out invites in the playground or by another means. If handed into school they will be sent home again.
Thank you

Poppy Appeal

Poppies are now available in the school entrance area. Children can buy poppies and a selection of items including wristbands at morning break.

Telephone Lines

Unfortunately our phone lines are still out of action; however we have been reassured by our phone line provider that this should only be the case for a few more days. Please use the following number to get through to the school office: 01707 343842

Choir Assembly

On Tuesday the whole school enjoyed a selection of spooky themed songs from Templewood Tones. Thank you to all the parents who came to watch and again, I would like to say a huge thank you to Mrs Wiley; we really appreciate her commitment. Well done to all the singers and particularly those who were brave enough to sing a solo.

Anti-Bullying week 13th -17th November.

During this week Templewood will be focusing on what bullying is, how to identify it and how to help others. The children will part take in assemblies, workshops and various activities within their classrooms. To start the week we would like all pupils to wear blue for the day- to stand up to bullying! (lead by Bullying UK; for further information please visit their website: <http://www.bullying.co.uk/wear-blue-day/>)

Birthday Treats

To help promote our 'Healthy School' status if, and there is no compulsion, parents want to bring in some treat for the class in celebration of their child's birthday, then a rather nice idea is to bring in a book, instead of sweets. This book could be new or one in good condition. The teacher will put a special label inside commemorating the event and acknowledging the donation. This book will be read and enjoyed by the class and longer lasting as a birthday treat!

We hope you will support us on this idea.
