You are a Star

However you feel about yourself, this activity is about focussing on the good bits!

You have most likely got all the qualities you need to be safe, happy and in control of your life. You might just need to recognise them!

Write down the names of two people you know (a friend, a famous person, a relative who you respect and admire. Write next to their names what it is about them that you admire so much.

Now think about what other people might say about you. What qualities have you got that people (your friends, teachers, family) might admire or like about you

These are the things that make you a unique and special person.
