Equal Opportunities Policy

(See also Disability Equality Duty; English as an Additional Language (EAL); Gifted, Talented and More Able Children; Racial Equality; Special Educational Needs)

1 Introduction

- 1.1 Our school's mission statement recognises the value of the individuality of all of our children. We are committed to giving all our children every opportunity to achieve the highest of standards. We do this by taking account of pupils' varied experiences and needs. We offer a broad and balanced curriculum, and have high expectations of all children. The achievements, attitudes and well-being of all our children matter. This policy is intended to help to ensure that this school promotes the individuality of all children, irrespective of ethnicity, religion, attainment, age, disability, gender or background.
- 1.2 This policy accords with legislation:
 - The Equality Act 2010 (updated May 2014)

2 Aims and objectives

- 2.1 We do not discriminate against anyone, be they staff or pupil or parent, on the grounds of sex, race, disability, religion or belief, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, pregnancy or maturity.
- 2.2 We promote the principle of fairness and justice for all through the education that we provide in our school. We recognise that doing this may entail treating some pupils differently.
- 2.3 We seek to ensure that all pupils have equal access to the full range of educational opportunities provided by the school.
- 2.4 We constantly strive to remove any forms of indirect discrimination that may form barriers to learning for some groups.
- 2.5 We ensure that all recruitment, employment, promotion and training systems are fair to all, and provide opportunities for everyone.
- 2.6 We challenge personal prejudice and stereotypical views whenever they occur.
- 2.7 We value each pupil's worth, we celebrate the individuality and cultural diversity of the community, centred on our school, and we show respect for all minority groups.
- 2.8 We are aware that prejudice and stereotyping are caused by poor self-image and by ignorance. Through positive educational experiences, and support for each individual's legitimate point of view, we aim to promote positive social attitudes and respect for all.

3 Racial equality

- 3.1 In our school, we will:
 - strive to eliminate all forms of racism and racial discrimination;
 - promote equality of opportunity;
 - promote good relations between people of different racial and ethnic groups.

Bishopstone CE school promotes Christian values and fosters an environment of spirituality, creativity and respect where everyone is valued and each child can achieve their full potential.

- 3.2 It is the right of all pupils to receive the best education the school can provide, with access to all educational activities organised by the school. We do not tolerate any forms of racism or racist behaviour. Should a racist incident occur, we will deal with it in accordance with school procedures (see policies for Racial Equality and for Behaviour and Anti-bullying).
- 3.3 We endeavour to make our school welcoming to all minority groups. We promote an understanding of diverse cultures through the topics studied by the children, and we reflect this in the displays of work shown around the school.
- 3.4 Our curriculum reflects the attitudes, values and respect that we have for minority ethnic groups.

4 Disability non-discrimination

- 4.1 We are committed to meeting the needs of children with disabilities, as we are to meeting the needs of all within the school. All reasonable steps are taken to minimise any disadvantage.
- 4.2 The school is committed to providing an environment that allows children with disabilities full access to all areas of learning. This is achieved to the best of our ability within the natural limitations of the existing building.
- 4.3 Teachers modify teaching and learning as appropriate for children with disabilities. For example, they may give additional time to complete certain activities, or modify teaching materials, or offer alternative activities where children are unable to manipulate tools or equipment. It is against the law for a school to treat disabled students unfavourably (July 2016 DfE)

5 Gender equality

- 5.1 We recognise that nationally, the achievement of boys does at times fall behind that of girls. We are committed to seeing all individuals and groups of pupils making the best progress possible in our school.
- 5.2 We have put in place a number of measures to raise the achievement of the boys. These include:
- dealing with negative aspects of boys' behaviour, including bullying and name-calling;
 - removing gender bias from our resources, except where this is helpful to children.
 - making sure that our displays reflect boys and men as effective learners and achievers;
 - encouraging boys to read widely.
 - celebrating boys' writing, where it is of a high standard, at least as often as that of girls.
- 5.3 To make our teaching more accessible to boys, we:
- begin a lesson by stating the learning outcomes, and giving the 'big picture';
 - employ a variety of activities, and include a kinaesthetic element;
 - deliver work in bite-sized chunks, with 'brain breaks' and new starts;
 - provide challenge, competition and short-term goals;
 - give regular positive feedback and rewards;
 - set writing tasks that are cross-curricular, that have been modelled first, and for which there are frames and scaffolds available.

Bishopstone CE school promotes Christian values and fosters an environment of spirituality, creativity and respect where everyone is valued and each child can achieve their full potential.

5.4 We realise that although gender is one of the key factors affecting educational performance, it affects different sub-groups of boys and girls in different ways. Social class, ethnic origin and local context are all strongly linked to performance. We also seek to ensure that policies designed to improve the boys' attainment do not do so at the expense of achievement by the girls.

6 The role of governors

6.1 In this policy statement, the governing body has set out its commitment to equal opportunities, and it will continue to do all it can to ensure that all members of the school community are treated both fairly and equally.

6.2 The governing body collects, analyses and evaluates a range of school data. The Governing Body check that all pupils are making the best possible progress, and that no group of pupils is underachieving. To do this the following are monitored:

- admissions;
- attainment;
- exclusions;
- rewards and sanctions;
- parents' and pupils' questionnaires.

6.3 The governing body seeks to ensure that people with disabilities are not discriminated against when applying for jobs at our school. The governors take all reasonable steps to ensure that the school environment properly accommodates people with disabilities.

6.4 The governors welcome all applications to join the school, whatever background or disability a child may have.

6.5 The governing body ensures that no child is discriminated against whilst in our school on account of their sex, religion or race. So, for example, all children have access to the full range of the curriculum, and regulations regarding school uniform will be applied equally to boys and girls. If a child's religion has a bearing on school uniform, then the school will deal with each case sensitively, and with respect for the child's cultural traditions.

7 The role of the head teacher

7.1 It is the head teacher's role to implement the school's policy on equal opportunities, and s/he is supported by the governing body in so doing.

7.2 It is the head teacher's role to make sure that all staff are aware of the school policy on equal opportunities, and that teachers apply these guidelines fairly in all situations.

7.3 The head teacher ensures that all appointments panels give due regard to this policy, so that no one is discriminated against.

7.4 The head teacher promotes the principle of equal opportunity when developing the curriculum, and in providing opportunities for training.

7.5 The head teacher promotes respect for other people in all aspects of school life; in the assembly, for example, respect for other people is a regular theme, as it is also in displays around the school.

Bishopstone CE school promotes Christian values and fosters an environment of spirituality, creativity and respect where everyone is valued and each child can achieve their full potential.

7.6 The head teacher views all incidents of unfair treatment, and any racist incidents, with due concern.

8 The role of the class teacher

8.1 Class teachers recognise their own proclivity to prejudices, but do their best to ensure that all pupils are treated fairly and with respect. We do not knowingly discriminate against any child.

8.2 When selecting classroom material, teachers strive to provide resources which give positive images, and which challenge stereotypical images of minority groups.

8.3 We seek to implement this policy when designing schemes of work, both in our choice of topics to study, and in how we approach sensitive issues. So, for example, history topics include examples of the significant contributions women have made throughout history. In geography, the teacher attempts to counter stereotypical images of Africa and Asia, and to show the true diversity of development in different parts of the world.

8.4 All our teachers and support staff challenge any incidents of prejudice or racism. We record any incidents in the school log book and draw them to the immediate attention of the head teacher.

9 Monitoring and review

9.1 It is the responsibility of our governing body to monitor the effectiveness of this policy. The governors will therefore:

- monitor the progress of pupils with regard to this policy;
- monitor the staff appointment process, so that no one applying for a post at this school is discriminated against;
- require the head teacher to report to governors annually on the effectiveness of this policy;
- take into serious consideration any complaints from parents/carers, staff or pupils regarding equal opportunity;
- monitor the school's behaviour policy, and the numbers of exclusions, to make sure that pupils from minority groups are not unfairly treated.

Review

- The Equal Opportunities Policy will be reviewed every year.
