Anti-Bullying Week
Monday 13th – Friday 17th November

Dear Parents/Carers,

Anti-Bullying Week 2017 is happening from Monday 13th – Friday 17th November and has the theme ‘All Different, All Equal’. It is coordinated by the Anti-Bullying Alliance which is based at the National Children’s Bureau.

The aims of this week are to empower children and young people to celebrate what makes them, and others, unique.

We hope to help children and young people to understand how important it is that every child feels valued and included in school, able to be themselves, without fear of bullying, to encourage parents and carers to work with their school and talk to their children about bullying, difference and equality.

Also to enable teachers and school support staff to celebrate what makes us ‘all different, all equal’ by celebrating difference and equality and taking individual and collective action to prevent bullying, creating safe environments where children can be themselves.

At Bransgore we will be talking with the children in class and in worship about the importance of ‘All Different, All Equal’ and to also take part in Odd Socks Day – an opportunity for children to express themselves and appreciate individuality and uniqueness.

Children are invited to wear odd socks to school on Thursday 16th November – the brighter and more colourful the better! There is no donation for this.

We look forward to seeing all the odd socks next Thursday to help us remember ‘All Different, All Equal’.

Thank you for your support.
