We have had a very busy week in school!

Year 3's to the National Stone Centre

We had a great day learning how rocks were formed and finding some amazing stones.

Sporting Success

Also, the Year 6 girls won the table tennis tournament.

Eco and Gardening Team went Bulb Planting

Mrs Wilcock took an eager bunch of green fingered children to plant some Daffodil bulbs in the Thistle Park.

Dying to Fit in

This week we all took part in a series of anti-bullying activities which ended in a performance. One of our newly appointed anti-bullying advisers has kindly written this report:

A visiting drama group came into school and did a performance called Dying to Fit In. The performance showed how someone can get bullied. They acted out different scenarios in the event of bullying and showed good and bad choices we can make.

One scenario was how a new girl wants to please a bully and do what the bully says even though it's bad, she wants to fit in and make friends. The other scenario is the new girl does the right thing and doesn't listen to the bully and tells a teacher right away.

The production was really good in showing that because we all want to be liked and have friends, we do something wrong in order to fit in. It has made me realise that we all have choices, good and bad, but we do not want to hurt others, so we choose to be good. SAY NO TO BULLYING!
