Luxury Christmas Hamper Draw

Please sell as many draw tickets as you can and ensure stubs and money are handed into the school office. The PTA would also like to ask for donations for the hampers. There is a donation list in the school office for ideas such as bottles of wine, Christmas Puddings, Mince Pies, Jams, Chutneys, Christmas Crackers, biscuits for cheese, dates, tins of biscuits, after dinner mints, box of chocolates etc. It would be lovely if you can take advantage of any offers when you are shopping to think of an item to donate for the hampers. Donations can be brought to the school office. Huge 'Thank You' from the PTA for your support

Pre-school News

If you would like extra sessions from January please contact the school office. If you would like to have a Wednesday morning session please speak to Donna Weeks. If there is enough demand we will open for a Wednesday morning session.

Outdoor Learning will take place on Thursday afternoon next week.

Our Autumn theme continues where we will be using the parachute, playing 'I can stop and go' game, experiencing the Autumn sensory tray, using the sand tray to practice writing letters and playing with the wooden sorting clock to practice numbers.

Letters will be coming home with information about our Nativity and Christmas party.

Outdoor Learning

Class 3 and Pre-school will have Outdoor Learning on Thursday next week, instead of Friday. Class 3 in the morning and Pre-school in the afternoon.
