Dear Parents,

Welcome to this weeks newsletter.

I can't believe we are already three weeks into the new term and Christmas songs are being learnt and sung all around the school!

The junior children have had parts allocated and scripts have been handed out.

The infant children will be involved in a joint play this year, auditions are being held currently!

We do ask for your support regarding costumes, as although we do have some we are limited on space for keeping as many as we need. If your child requires a costume we will send a note home with what this costume is, if you do have trouble providing this do speak to a member of the school staff.

We have had the very sad news that Mrs Vaughan is to leave us at the end of next week. As you can imagine this has not been an easy decision for her, however as her own children have now grown up and left school she has decided to return to her first passion; baking. We all wish her every success and happiness in her new career and if ever making cakes becomes boring we will welcome her back with open arms!

Mrs Vaughan has touched so many children's hearts in the time she has been here and will be dearly missed by children, parents and staff.

This week Forge, Hurstwood and Oakwood begun their new texts, all are Christmas or snowy themed!

Forge class have started the wonderful story of The Princess and the White Bear King and were busy designing and making crowns.

Hurstwood class have begun the text 'The Snow Queen' they have written some amazing descriptions of her!

Oakwood class have started to look at the text 'A Christmas Carol'. They have been practising reading as characters and understanding the language that Charles Dicken's used.

Fir Tree class have a dragons den inside their classroom and have transformed the gazebo into a castle, where they have been busy writing invites to a banquet!

Kemsley class are continuing with their text 'Firebird' and they have started to write their own versions based on the story.

Finally I would like to say thankyou for the incredibly positive feedback regarding the fireworks evening last Friday. It really was a huge success. Thank you to the FOBS team who all pulled together to make a lovely evening for our children. Despite the lack of light, electricity tripping out and last minute panics regarding extension leads! We do plan to hold another firework event next year we will ensure we have more light and we aim to have bigger and better fireworks.

Thank you to Mrs. Groves for her amazing fire dancing, you were spectacular!

We raised a total of £1,400 for the school which once again is a huge amount, which will make a difference to the education of each and every child within the school.

Best Wishes

Michelle Cox
