Dear Parents

The Nativity was absolutely wonderful - well done to all the children, they were absolute stars and all the practising paid off. It was lovely to meet so many of you and thank you to those who took the time to introduce themselves, it is much appreciated.

The Ardeley School Christmas Post box will be put in the entrance hall from Monday. Children can post cards in there to each other and these will be handed out regularly until the end of term.

These children have been awarded Merit Certificates this week:

RED:	Bertie	UKS2
ORANGE:	Ivy	EYFS	Isla	EYFS
	Emily	EYFS	Maddie	EYFS
	Rocco	EYFS	Archer	EYFS
	Daniel	EYFS	Toby	EYFS
	Caitlyn	EYFS	Jasmine	EYFS
	Millie	EYFS	Sophia	EYFS
YELLOW:	Maddie	EYFS	Jasmine	EYFS

Well done children!

Next week we have our Christmas dinner on Wednesday - the children are welcome to dress in festive jumpers on this day.

Our parties are the following week - we are hoping for a 'special visitor', and the children have already written lists to send him of presents they would like for their classrooms! We will ParentMail out next week regarding food for the parties.

There have been an increasing numbers of parents collecting other children without the school being notified beforehand. To ensure the safeguarding of all the children, especially as our school community grows, from January we will ask you to call or email the office to let us know if anyone other than you is collecting your children. We will not be able to let children go home with another adult without this authorisation. This is for ad-hoc collections only; we do not need to be notified daily of regular arrangements for collections, such as by grandparents and child-minders. I hope you understand this is to keep the children safe.

With kind regards,
Karen Connolly
