TOWN END SPORTS ROUND UP

Our Sports superstar this week is Paige for showing passion and dedication to playing sport.

Aaron and Brennan shared swimming certificates of their achievements this term.

We look forward to seeing how well our teams compete in Basketball, Athletics, Dance and Boccia competitions next term.

Care and Safety

Children tell us that friendship fall outs often happen because others take away their individual rights. For example;

- Friends not letting them choose who they want to play with, or
- friends dominating what they play with.

Through discussion this week the children have added, 'causing upset by manipulating others and being intimidating,' to the yellow card system as they feel this could lead to bullying.

It is classed as bullying and reported to Derbyshire County Council, if it is
Several Times On Purpose (S.T.O.P)
