Laying the foundations for a bright future

Christingle Service at Little Thurlow Church at 2:30pm ~ Friday 15th December
(No Family Celebration Assembly on Friday 15th December)

A note from Mrs Fitzgerald...

Well, the end of term is fast approaching ~ where does the time go?! So much to squeeze in! I do hope to see some of you at our Christmas Fayre later today!

I do hope you have seen the recent ParentMail email with the School's Ofsted Report attached. We have, of course, shared the outcome with Mrs Hogg, who, like the whole staff team, was very pleased to hear the outcome and we have expressed thanks for all her hard work in laying the foundations and putting so much in place, particularly since the previous inspection.

Whilst the end of term looms we remain focused on achieving the highest educational standards and very best educational experiences for all our pupils.

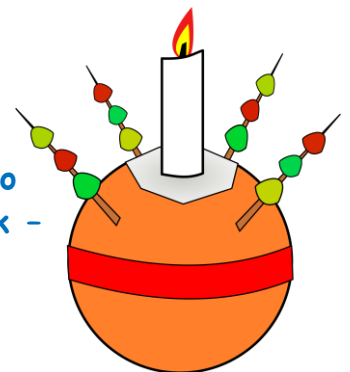

I recently sent out our recently updated 'Anti-Bullying Policy' ~ if you do have any comments or suggestions do come along to our next Parent Forum session planned for Friday 12th January, 2018. Alternatively, you can always pass on your views via email or in person ~ my door is always open.

Thank you for your continued help and support.

Warm regards, Mrs Fitzgerald
