

A very special visit.

We are excited to share with you that we had a very special visitor to the academy today, Wednesday 17th January 2018.

The brilliant Mr David Walliams 'popped in' to meet us following a request from our very own Britain's Got Talent star Issy Simpson.

As part of his incredibly busy schedule whilst in Blackpool, Mr Walliams took the time to visit our school and host a special assembly for our Key Stage 2 pupils.

During the assembly Mr Walliams answered questions posed by the pupils and read from Bad Dad, The Worst Children and Gangsta Granny.

He gave signed copies of his newest book 'Bad Dad' to 10 pupils and, as he could not meet all the pupils due to the length of his visit, promised to send us one of his books for every child in the school!

We are absolutely delighted and grateful that our children have had such a wonderful opportunity.

It is not everyday that you go to school, meet an amazing author and hear him read the books he has written – it will certainly be a day to remember for us all.

We will publish more photographs and footage from the event on our website and Twitter page so please watch this space.
