Wonderful Worldwide Web

The web is a strange place where answers or websites are. It can be used worldwide on phones or any gadgets. Web sites can be used for helpful definitions. All of the answers are supported by a company known around the globe by the ^{name of} google. It has a large impact on the world with more incoming technology.

Companies like apple have made gadgets like an apple watch and others have made virtual reality a thing. These extraordinary projects can be sold on websites, such as Ebay or Amazon. If you search something an answer will be there definitely or something that is linked to your question. Kids would like it.

Simon cried "Mum I want this!" Her His ^{screamed} mum 1
"If you want this you will have to work hard for it." The Ipad was as shiny as a diamond in a jewellery store. Simon worked as hard as he could to try and get to his goal but he wouldn't stop trying until... There were no more things to do to help his family.

- Simon will be scared if he can't achieve it
- His mum will be impressed he did all the chores
- Simon's mum gets his Ipad for his hard work

He was very worried if he couldn't get his new Ipad. Simon hoped his mother or family would approve his work so he can achieve his new Ipad. "WOW!!" Shouted Simon's mum approving on his work to get his Ipad. He did all the chores of the day and he eventually worked his way to the new gadget. One day, by surprise Simon's mum came with a package. "What is that... THANK YOU!" Simon hugged his generous mum as she pulled his new Ipad out.
