Coaches/Managers Code of Conduct

As a coach you will be in a position of great responsibility in the development of the children you work with - both in terms of personal and sport development. You will inevitably be a role model, so it is important that you take the responsibilities seriously and conduct yourself accordingly at all times. The attitudes and behaviours you exhibit will set the tone for the players and parents/carers you work with.

- Coaches/Managers must respect the rights' dignity and worth of each and every person and treat each equally within the context of the sport.
- Coaches/Managers must place the well being and safety of each player above all other considerations, including the development of performance.
- Coaches/Managers must adhere to all guidelines laid down within the rules of the competition.
- Coaches/Managers must develop an appropriate working relationship with each player based on mutual trust and respect.
- Coaches/Managers must encourage and guide players to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance.
- Coaches/Managers must always promote the appropriate Code of Conduct and positive aspects of the sport (e.g. fair play) to players, parents/carers and spectators alike.
- Coaches/Managers must consistently display high standards of behaviour and experience and be a role model for players, parents/carers and spectators
- Coaches/Managers should ensure that the reasonable requests of the host school/venue provider are adhered to.
- Coaches/Managers should ensure that the posting of school team successes on the school's Social Media accounts does not make reference to excessively heavy defeats of a fellow school.
