What another fantastic week of learning at St Martin's Garden Primary: Brendon Rouse visited and led healthy games and activities, Year 4 & 6 were invited to watch St Gregory's School production of The Sound of Music, and Year 6 are working hard on SATS practice. Year R made the 'Naughty Bus', a penguin mysteriously delivered apostrophes to Year 1, Year 2 became shopkeepers, Year 3 made tree faces, Year 4 had fraction fun and made Roman roads, Year 5 learnt about healthy food and Year 6 learnt an origami story.

- 1. BREAKFAST CLUB ~ We currently have spaces everyday in our Breakfast Club. Breakfast club runs from 8.00am until 8.45am (please arrive before 8.30am if you would like your child to have Breakfast). The children play games and do activities and have a lovely start to the school day. Breakfast club costs £1.10 per day. Please see the Admin office for a booking form.
- 2. READING ~ We are holding a Parents Reading Information Session on WEDNESDAY 7th FEBRUARY 2018 at 2.30pm for Parents of pupils in Reception and Year 1. Please make every effort to attend to find out how we teach reading and how we can work together to support your children's learning.
- 3. HEADLICE ~ We have been asked, again, to ask ALL parents to check regularly and treat, if appropriate, their children's hair for Headlice. As a school we can not eradicate the problem but as parents you can work together to keep in the instances to a minimum. Thank you.
- 4. PUPIL SAFETY: Please ensure that young children DO NOT walk through the school car parks on their own - they need an adult with them. Also please ensure that children are not waiting in the playground without adult supervision before 8:45am. Some children are being dropped or arriving very early. If you do need to drop off early, please use our fabulous Breakfast Club. Thank you.
