School Council

What do you want to be when you grow up ?

The school council will be holding a special non-uniform day on Friday 9th February. The children will be invited to come dressed in clothes they might wear in their chosen profession and contribute £1 for the event. The funds raised will be used to improve the garden areas around the school. Get your thinking caps on and creative minds at the ready to prepare for this dressing up day. Further information from the school council will follow.

Baby News

Miss Ashton's baby has arrived. Imogen was born on 30th January and weighed 5lb 8oz. Both mum and baby are doing well

Parent Consultations

Please can parents return their slips to book their appointments for the parent consultation event on Monday 5th February

Lost Property

The lost property is overflowing. Items will be out on display after school tomorrow, Thursday 1st February. Please call in and have a look if you have any items of clothing missing.

PE Kits

Just a reminder that the children need to get changed into their PE kits for all PE activities. This is:

- T-shirt in the team colour, shorts and pumps (indoor PE)
- T-shirt in the team colour with tracksuit or joggers and sweatshirt with trainers for outdoor PE
- All PE kit should be in a bag suitable to hang on a coat peg.
