Friday 23rd February 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

I hope you found your child's interim report and your parent consultations earlier this week helpful. I know the staff and I certainly do find these meetings useful and appreciate the opportunity to meet with you.

We are focusing on the Christian value of 'Justice' this term and have planned some interesting visitors to school to talk to the children, including a local judge and our community police. We have already had some thought-provoking discussions and pupil-led worships reflecting upon this value. I have included some ideas for activities you could do at home with your child.

Please keep photos of out-of-school activities coming in – we hope to share them and display them in time for our 'Achievements from Home' assembly at the end of term.

It looks like the winter chills have stayed away for many, with the vast majority of pupils achieving 100% attendance last half-term. Our thanks to you for your support in achieving good attendance as it really does make a big difference to pupils learning, reducing the gaps caused by missing days.

We have a busy few weeks ahead, with new dates added to the dairy. These are the latest updates:
