2018 March # 2 WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

Up-coming news and events for the week ahead

Library Van: The van will be here on Monday 12th March. Please remember to bring any books you wish to return.

Mothers' Day Shop: All the children enjoyed visiting the Mothers day shop today & carefully chose something they thought their mummy would like. Thank you to all who donated gifts and those members of the PTA who gave of their time to "staff" the shop.

Feet First Families: A reminder that school is taking part in 'Feet First Families' event tomorrow. Children and their families, are encouraged to walk, bike or scoot to school to make the school a car-free zone. There will be a 'Party in the Parking Lot' on the day which will involve various activities set up in the car parking spaces. The school will be entered into a competition to win prizes for the highest percentage walking, biking and scooting

Scholastic Book Fair: The book fair will be in school from Wednesday 14th March until Friday 16th March. Leaflets have been sent home today to each family to give some idea of titles available.

Pupils will be given the opportunity to view books with their class during school. Parents, grandparents, siblings are all welcome to come to the book fair at 8.40a.m. or at 2p.m. and 3p.m.

Pirates of the Curry Bean: Tickets are still available for the three performances of the P5-7 play. All pupils will have an opportunity to see the play in school. If you haven't already, please fill in the attached slip to request tickets. Adults & children of secondary school age are £3.50 & children under 12 are £2.00.
