

A voice for families of children and young people with special educational needs and/or disabilities

Are you a parent carer of a disabled and/or special needs child?

Do you want to meet others in the same situation and have your say in shaping services?

Then come along to Krazy Play Days, Unit 7, Sterling Way, Tilehurst, Reading, RG30 6HW
and find out about

Reading Schools' Link Mental Health Project – a local focus on improving children and young people's access to mental health services

27th March, 6.30 pm – 8.30 pm

Free entry, light refreshment, siblings welcome

Dr Deb Hunter, Principal Educational Psychologist, will be present from 7 pm to talk about the current project, listening to your experiences and seeking your views on how the project should develop. There will be qualified helpers on site to supervise your children, so that you can be free to listen to the talk. (Please note that child care spaces are limited).

To book your place, please email fran.morgan.rff@gmail.com or telephone/text on the mobile number below.

We would be grateful if you could let us know if you would like to come to our coffee evenings but the day and time is not convenient for you. Please email and say what would be better for you so we could adjust timings to suit as many families as possible. Thank you.
