

PARTNERSHIP LEARNING TEACHING SCHOOL ALLIANCE

Primary & Secondary

Outstanding Teacher Programme (OTP)

Delivered by:

Zoey Cross and Catherine O'Connell

National College for Teaching & Leadership

Designed and facilitated by experienced school leaders and teachers, the OTP gives good (and outstanding) teachers a set of high level skills and strategies that enable them to become consistently and sustainably outstanding. It helps them to:

- Demonstrate higher level understanding of teaching and improve learning for their pupils
- Coach colleagues and pupils in their own school and in other schools to raise performance levels
- Create a proactive school culture where the quality of teaching and learning is openly observed, discussed, challenged and enhanced
- Increase the 'job' satisfaction and create opportunities for further leadership and career progression.

The programme:

- Provides in-depth coaching to deepen understanding of outstanding practice
- Allows participants to improve through facilitated activities to reflect on teaching approaches and their quality and impact

- Introduces and consolidates new knowledge and skills, focuses on outstanding
- Provides strong input on the progression against the professional standards of excellence.

Eligibility:

This programme is open to teachers with the potential and capacity to consistently facilitate outstanding lessons.

Participants would need to demonstrate:

- On-going commitment to CPD
- At least two years of value added data showing student progress and improving results
- An interest in developing a coaching ethos within their classroom and/or across the school

Commitment:

This course is run over 7 half-day sessions - all sessions must be attended.

This programme is crucial for teachers involved in developing Leadership in Teaching and Learning.
