Learners of Purpose Year 6 Office Assistants

We are extremely proud of our Year 6 lunchtime office assistants. They ensure our office runs smoothly and professionally during lunch time; demonstrating the highest levels of commitment and responsibility at all times. It will soon be time to pass on your skills to train the new assistants for next year. Well done. We are very proud of you all!

The Keys Federation Music Academy

Unlocking your child's musical potential

Our Music Performer of the week is Bethany, Year 6, for taking part in the Music for Youth Festival as part of the Keys Federation Choir.

Medical/Dentist Appointments

If your child needs to attend a medical/dentist appointment, please arrange this for the end of the school day whenever possible.

An "Absence for Medical Appointment Form" must be completed at the school office and proof of appointment shown, before the visit. Thank you for your co-operation with this matter.

Lost Property

All lost property will be on display in the school hall on Friday after school. Please take a look if any belongs to your child.

Thank you.
