

Unitary Equivalent Graphs

Mario Thne

Leipzig University

mario.thuene@uni-leipzig.de

If the adjacency matrices of two graphs are related through a unitary transformation we call those graphs unitary equivalent. For simple graphs this notion coincides with isospectrality. A construction for unitary equivalent graphs, which generalizes GM switching, will be given.