04. OUR WORK

ABOUT US.

Andalusia Conference (AC) stands as a distinguished beacon in the field of medical conference organization, inaugurated in the year 2016 under "Andalusia Group for Medical Services." Our paramount objective is the elevation of healthcare standards across Egypt and the Middle East. This is pursued through the orchestration of comprehensive educational conferences, curated and overseen by luminaries in diverse medical disciplines.

AC strongly focuses on the advancement of medical knowledge and practices, nurturing individuals across all ranks of the medical spectrum. From promising undergraduate doctors to accomplished Ph.D. candidates, our commitment lies in fostering passion for the relentless progress of medical science and practice.

WHAT WE DO.

We assert ourselves as vanguards in meticulously customized conferences. We architect ingenious solutions that not only seamlessly harmonize with the predefined objectives of conferences, but also climb above and beyond the horizons of attendees' expectations.

A synchronized in-house team is fully qualified to compose the success of medical conferences. These services cover many facets, including adept hosting, adept sponsor engagement, seamless coordination with international speakers, and the smooth planning of event coverage in collaboration with our production team.

OUR VISION.

Andalusia Conferences aspires to ascend to the pinnacle of healthcare conference curation, formulating transformative gatherings to the preferences and professional requirements of medical practitioners in order to attain unparalleled excellence within their domains, therefore creating a world with better patient care.

OUR MISSION.

AC is committed to the delivery of tailor-made educational conferences to address the precise requisites of healthcare professionals, by cultivating an atmosphere where collaboration and sharing of knowledge among healthcare professionals lead to a noticeable improvement in medical care standards.
