

Delivery & Pick-Up

Quick delivery guide for original products:

- 1 Shipment from outside the EU: Do you have an EORI number?
If not, please request one at the German Customs Authority! This identification number is necessary to import into the EU and has to be requested only once. It can be used again for any future shipments into the EU.
- 2 Please get a transport and exhibiton insurance.
The German Design Council and its contractors handle your products with utmost care. Nevertheless, your project could get damaged during the shipping or assembly.
- 3 Please mark your projects and packaging with your project ID: GDA2022-XXXXX.
- 4 Please send your project delivered duty paid with a shipping company of your choice. Please take care of the customs clearance process and provide all necessary documents, e.g. a proforma invoice.
- 5 Deliver successfully to our logistics partner Sempex and in time for the jury meeting!

Delivery & Pick-Up

Delivery Notes

- » The German Design Council is not responsible for damages that occur during assembly and disassembly unless instructed otherwise.
- » The projects are to be delivered in reusable and transport-safe packaging for return shipment.
- » If a forklift truck is required for unloading, it can be ordered fee-based in advance using the forms at »My Design Council«. If a forklift truck is required for unloading without ordering beforehand, the costs incurred will be invoiced to the submitter.
- » If it is necessary to store packaging material (self-assembly) during the jury meeting, this will be charged in the amount of EUR 60.00 per cm³. Storage can be ordered at the time of delivery.
- » Category Lighting:
The products must be functional for the jury meeting, with a Euro plug, a power cable (min. 3m), battery or accumulator and be designed for use with 230 V power. If any additional work (e.g. plug replacement, current transformer, etc.) is required for the presentation at the jury meeting, the submitter accepts any costs that may be incurred. The costs will be charged afterwards.
- » Category Bicycles and E-bikes:
The products have to be functional for the jury meeting and must be equipped with a bicycle stand or delivered with a separate bicycle stand.

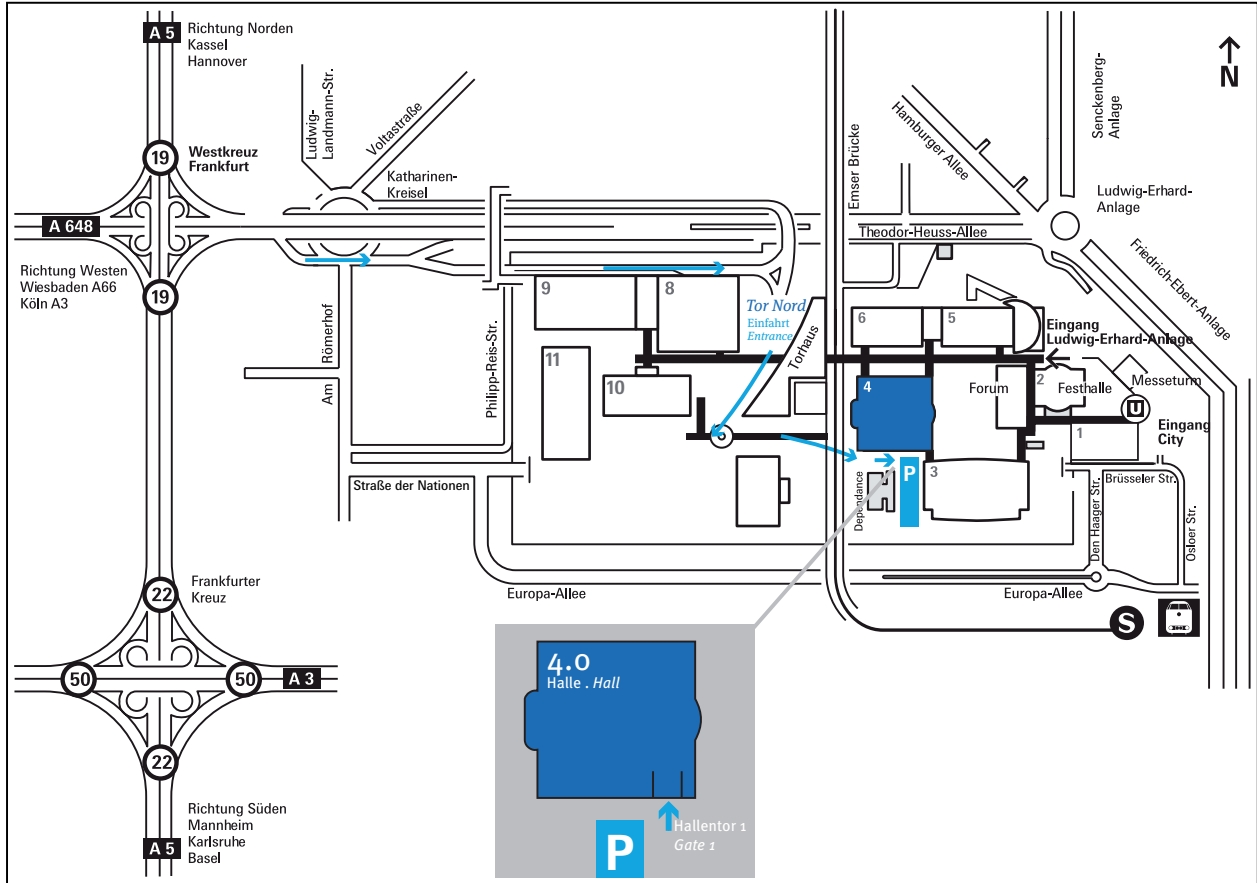

Pick-Up Notes

- » The person collecting the project must be able to identify themselves and specify the project ID.
- » Request return shipment: Please use the return form to request the return shipment from our logistics partner.
- » Disposal: The project will be disposed of at your request.
- » Size S & M:
Contributions that have not been collected by the participants within the specified period will be accepted at the maximum ten working days and then removed without exception. The storage costs in the amount of EUR 40.00 per day and per submission, as well as possible removal costs (depending on the effort) will be charged to the participant.
- » Size L & XL:
Contributions that have not been collected by the participants within the specified period will be disposed. The removal costs (depending on the effort) will be charged to the participant.
- » Vehicles:
Vehicles that have not been picked up by the participants within this period will be removed for a fee.
