

WAYNE STATE
School of Social Work

GAIN YOUR MASTER'S FROM DETROIT'S SOCIAL WORK SCHOOL

Advance Your Education in the Heart of Midtown Detroit

Wayne State University's Master of Social Work (MSW) allows you to advance your education to make a difference in the lives of those who need help the most. Our Master's program provides the opportunity to turn classroom knowledge into effective community action within an urban community. Take the next step by learning the skills you need to achieve a successful career in social work.

An Affordable & Flexible Way to Further Your Education

Wayne State University's tuition ranks as the most affordable among Michigan's Top 3 universities. With a wide range of scholarships and grant programs, there's no easier way to advance your skills. Complete the MSW program on your terms with our full-time or part-time options. Wayne State's program is Michigan's first online asynchronous MSW program. Customize your schedule with daytime, evening and even online course offerings. We offer learning methods to meet your needs with both in-person and our new fully online MSW program options. Both formats provide an urban learning training experience to ensure you are ready to successfully transition from the classroom to community upon graduation. You can also choose between two concentrations and seven focal areas to tailor your education to your career goals. We even offer Dual-title and Joint-degree options to further customize your degree.

Why You Should Attend WSU:

- Rich learning experience in the heart of midtown Detroit
- Michigan's most diverse public university
- Extensive list of scholarships and financial aid
- Projected employment of social workers to grow 7% from 2022-2032*
- Internship opportunities within an urban setting
- Flexible schedules either on campus or online

Curriculum:

- Core Program (2-year) and Advanced Standing (1-year) options
- Minimum 60 credit hours of graduate course work (36 credits for Advanced Standing)
- 450 internship hours

How to Apply for MSU:

- Complete the online application for Core or Advanced Standing programs. All applicants are encouraged to submit as early as possible.

Application deadline is May 1

APPLY TODAY