Ćw. 1

A/

Jerry chwali się, jakie zabawki ma on i jego siostra. Przeczytaj krótki tekst i wysłuchaj go. Dopisz wszystkie zabawki (toy zabawka) przy polskich tłumaczeniach.

Our toys

We are very lucky. We've got a lot of toys.

I've got a skateboard, lots of computer games, lots of Lego blocks, a Rubik's cube and a spaceship.

My sister Amy has got lots of dolls and a skipping rope; and she's got a new bike and a small doll house.

klocki lego domek dla lalek lalka deskorolka gry komputerowe rower kostka rubika statek kosmiczny skakanka

Zatrzymaj nagranie i zrób tę część ćwiczenia.

B/ A ty jakie masz zabawki? Masz rodzeństwo? A jakie zabawki ma twój brat/ siostra?

Jak zadać te pytania po angielsku. Spróbujmy:

What toys have you got?

Have you got any brothers or sisters?

What toys has your brother got?

What toys has your sister got?

Zrób ćwiczenie najpierw pisemnie, a potem ustnie. Opowiedz, jakie masz zabawki.

Klucz

klocki lego	Lego blocks
domek dla lalek	doll house

lalka	doll
deskorolka	skateboard

Ćw. 2

Przypomnijmy, jak budujemy zdania twierdzące, przeczące i pytające z have got.

You have got a book. Ty masz książkę.

You haven't got a book. Ty nie masz książki.

Have you got a book? Czy ty masz książkę?

What have you got? Co ty masz?

She has got a bike. Ona ma rower.

She hasn't got a bike. On nie ma roweru.

Has she got a bike? Czy ona ma rower?

What has she got? Co ona ma?

Zbuduj zdania na podstawie podanych słów.

Przykład

Mia, not have, a bike

Mia hasn't got a bike.

1 they/ not have/ a swimming pool
