

Contents

6	Introduction
20	1 The basics
22	The anatomy of type
23	Categories of type
26	Combining typefaces
28	Selecting typefaces
31	Families of type
32	Expert sets
35	Measurement of type
37	Structure of a letterform
39	Counterforms
40	Case study
42	2 Using the typeface
44	Legibility and readability
46	Upper and lower case
48	Line measure and spacing
51	Colour and size
54	The typeface
55	Background
56	Type on screen
58	Paragraphs
62	Layout
67	Type and image
68	Graphic elements
70	Case study
72	3 Designing with type
74	The design process
82	Experimentation
84	Design considerations
91	Tools
93	Refining
94	Case study
96	4 Communication
98	Forms of communication
100	Meanings
106	Context
109	Impact
110	Rhythm and repetition
111	Visual continuity
113	Type as image
116	Symbols and graphic devices
118	Case study
120	5 Colour and movement
122	Colour of type
128	Using colour to create hierarchy
130	Colour and symbolism
132	Technical issues relating to colour
133	Type and movement
148	Case study
150	6 Experiments with type
152	Experimental techniques
156	Type out there
161	Self-generated experiments
165	Surfaces
168	Type in three dimensions
173	Type as image
174	Pattern and decoration
176	Case study
178	7 Production considerations
180	Evaluation
181	Pre-flight
183	Choice of stock
187	Print processes
193	Colour in production
194	Production for print
199	File formats for print
199	Production for screen
199	Legal issues and accessibility
200	Case study
202	Glossary
204	Some further reading / Websites
205	Index
207	Picture credits		