

Bob goes Pop!

- What are the physical differences between Bob and Roy?
- What sorts of shapes have been used to create the character of Bob?
- Bob was the only artist in town before Roy arrived. Roy is also an artist. Why do you think Bob is upset by Roy's arrival?
- What words would you use to describe the illustrator's artwork style?
- It's common for children's books to have a strong moral or positive message. What do you think is the message in this book?
- The word 'pop' is a great example of onomatopoeia. Onomatopoeia is when a word sounds the same as the action it describes, such as 'bang', 'sizzle' and 'meow'. Can you think of five other examples of onomatopoeia?

f Find us on Facebook

🐦 Follow us on Twitter: @LKPChildrens

📷 Follow us on Instagram: /laurencekingpub

📺 Find us on youtube: Laurence King Publishing

📖 Find us on NetGalley

laurenceking.com/childrens

