Welcome to the third EVAN Art Trail. We hope you will find this Directory of Artists useful and enjoy your adventure to meet our artists.

EVAN has grown from strength to strength since it was founded in 2017. We now have over 140 artists ranging from Carlisle, Allerdale, Copeland and Eden. We are still self-managed and not for profit. Artists are encouraged to get fully involved in the projects.

We are looking forward to the second Penrith Arts Festival running from 29 August - 1 September 2019. We hope you will be able to join us for this great event which gives you the chance to get involved with artistic activities.

Trail Opening: 15-23 June 10am to 4pm daily
Trail Location: My studio is at the EVAN Gallery and Studios, 4 Corney Place Penrith, CA11 7PX

Diverse is the keyword for my art; My Cumbrian views include some realistic and others taking bizaar shape, texture and colour from the imagination.
I create Bespoke Picture Frames for my own and other artists work using timber from a local sawmill.

Where to view my work or meet me in person outside the Art Trail:
During the year I work between my home Framing workshop, Evan Gallery Penrith and Castle Fine Arts Appleby.

E: mariaburton750@hotmail.com  www.mariaburtonart.com

Trail Opening: The gallery will be Open Each day from 10-4 with some later opening times. Someone will be there but please check first if you wish to speak directly to Maria. Thank you.

Trail Location: EVAN Gallery and Studio’s, Corney Place Penrith
Evocative, atmospheric landscape paintings that hold intrigue and invite the viewer to make their own connection to the sense of place.
Maria is an award winning artists based permanently within the EVAN Gallery and Studios, Penrith and welcomes discussions on potential commissions. A call or text to see if Maria is there is always advised as she does go on location to paint at times.

Where to view my work or meet me in person outside the Art Trail:
Maria has a permanent base in the Gallery. Telephone, email or text to double check that Maria is in but the gallery is staffed Tuesday to Saturday in any case.

1 Ray Ogden

T: 07517 603166
E: oggio@btinternet.com  www.rayogden.com

Trail Opening: 15-23 June 10.00 am - 4pm

Trail Location: I shall be at two locations this year:
My studio space at the EVAN Gallery, Corney Place, Penrith CA11 7PX & Dalemain House, near Penrith CA11 0HB, exhibiting with Cumbria Printmakers
From designer/illustrator to feral fine artist, my work focuses, in the main, on the design and production of limited edition prints. The aim, essentially, is to court the eye and ‘bring a smile to the mind’

Where to view my work or meet me in person outside the Art Trail:
My time is split between my studios in Culgaith and the Evan Gallery, Penrith. Please email or ring if you would specifically like to arrange to meet. I’m currently exhibiting at Keswick theatre & C.C.A. Old Fire Station Gallery, Carlisle.

1 Sarah Reid

T: 07738 006323
E: minidaff@gmail.com  www.redrawstudios.co.uk

Trail Opening: 15-23 June 10.00am - 4.00pm (other times by appointment)

Trail Location: EVAN Gallery and Studios, 4 Corney Place, Penrith CA11 7PX

Sarah is fascinated by the ever changing light upon the Cumbrian landscape and our place within it. Working primarily in pastel, her work captures an emotional response to the scenery and invites the viewer to explore the scene - drawn in by unexpected hints of light and colour, strong lines and bold stripes

Where to view my work or meet me in person outside the Art Trail:
Red Raw Studios is located within the EVAN Gallery in Corney Place, Penrith. My work can also be seen at exhibitions throughout the year. Please visit my website at redrawstudios.co.uk
1 Anna McKay
T: 01697 472233
E: anna.roberts9@tesco.net
Trail Opening: 15-23 June 10.00 am - 4pm
Trail Location: My studio is at the EVAN Gallery and Studios, 4 Corney Place Penrith CA11 7PX

Watercolours, inks and linocuts. I enjoy experimenting with texture and colour and the unpredictability of ink and watercolour on paper. I paint with watercolour, inks, salt and sand to create versions of the landscape around Eden Valley and the Solway coast. Recent work includes the end papers for the book Katie and the Floods and the cover for Joe and the Storm in collaboration with author Susan Fox and the illustrator Irene Sanderson.

2 Liz Acland
T: 01768864675/07971796283
Trail Opening: 15 - 23 June 2019 2pm - 5pm
Trail Location: 21 Arthur Street, Penrith, CA11 7TU. Arthur Street is one of the “New Streets” which lead up to Beacon Edge.

Working in mixed media, I seek to convey my delight in the natural world using bold line and colour, be the subject a Cumbrian Valley or a wild Irish beach. I like to work quickly in response to the changing light of our northern climes, and enjoy experimenting with new techniques.

Where to view my work or meet me in person outside the Art Trail:
My work can be viewed at the EVAN Gallery and Studios, Penrith, CA11 7PX. I enjoy welcoming visitors to my studio at any time. All I need is an advance phone call. All proceeds from my artwork go towards the support of two AIDS orphan girls in Kampala, Uganda, both of whom I have seen through school. I am now paying college fees for them.

I have been working mainly in oils and pastel this past year, painting snow scenes, landscape and seascape. The beauty and moods of Cumbria, in particular, are a great source of inspiration and I enjoy using colour and light to interpret the energy and atmosphere I observe. I also have a bit of a ‘thing’ about trees!

Where to view my work or meet me in person outside the Art Trail:
Exhibitions and galleries this year include EVAN Gallery and Studios Penrith, EVAN Art Trail in September, Penrith Art Club and Tirril exhibitions. For all other exhibitions, including the artists group ‘ButterFactory’, please see web site above for more details.

I paint and draw with a variety of mediums dependant on the effects I want to achieve – usually driven by the subject matter. Photography happens when something catches my attention: strong colours, contrasting light and the occasional cuteness or silliness.

Where to view my work or meet me in person outside the Art Trail:

I have work in: Taint Modern Gallery & the Visitors Centre in Kirkby Stephen and the EVAN gallery in Penrith. Happy to meet people in either gallery. The last Sunday of each month Apr – Sep I’m at Prom Art, Grange over Sands. I take part in various art fairs and shows.

Trail Opening: Saturday 15 June - Sunday 23 June 10am - 4pm daily

Trail Location: Sarah Losh Heritage Centre, Wreay, CA4 0RL (Church).

I often use insects and other small and overlooked creatures for my ideas and sculpture. This exhibition, about disappearing insects, will hopefully blend with the story of Wreay Church and the spirit of its architect Sarah Losh. Some pieces in ceramic, textiles and wire will be outside if the weather is fine. The Church and heritage centre are worth a visit anyway.

Trail Opening: June 15th – 23rd 10am – 4pm daily

Trail Location: Great Corby Village Hall, Great Corby, Nr Carlisle

Inspired by both the natural and urban environments I produce work in a range of media – from photography and textiles to print and paint. My photographs, covered notebooks etc are being exhibited as part of a group of local artists offering paintings, prints, textiles and jewellery

Where to view my work or meet me in person outside the Art Trail:
Throughout the year my work can be seen at
EVAN Gallery, Corney Square, Penrith. CA11 7PX
I try to bring atmosphere and drama to my work, working predominantly in Oils and Acrylics.
I look for the “extreme” moments in nature. Steering away from a natural palette, often introducing bolder tones to achieve a unique signature look in each piece.

Where to view my work or meet me in person outside the Art Trail:
My work is on permanent display in Evan Gallery in Penrith and Castle Framing and Fine Arts in Carlisle and Brampton.
My work and contact details are also available from my website www.frazart.co.uk and Facebook page

Liz Jones is an artist with a passion for printmaking. She produces reduction linocuts inspired by the rural environment around her. She also uses linocuts to create designs for fabric which she transfers onto silk screens and handprints onto cotton and linen to produce lampshades, cushions and tea towels.

Where to view my work or meet me in person outside the Art Trail:
I am in my home studio all year. Please contact me to arrange an appointment. In 2019 I will be exhibiting at Art Mart, Langwathby (July), Craftsmen at the Priory (Aug), Art in the Pen, Skipton (Aug). Please check Facebook.com/lizjonesstudio for events later in the year.

Turn Right SP Ireby, 3 1/2 miles cottage on right (corner of lane)

I live surrounded by fells and mountains and try, in my art, to capture the light and drama seen on our many walks. I work in acrylics, watercolour and pastels using sketches and photos for inspiration back in the studio

Where to view my work or meet me in person outside the Art Trail:
I exhibit regularly in the Keswick society of Art exhibitions. May and Sept: Cumbria Artists Easter Exhibition, Grasmere; Keswick Theatre in April; Maes Tea room and Gallery, Uldale; Open Exhibitions EVAN Gallery Penrith. You may also ring me to arrange a meeting at my Studio.

27 Ruth Charlton

T: 016973 71690 mob: 07974906824 E: ruthcharlton5@hotmail.com www.oldbarnstudios.com

Trail Opening: 16th – 23rd June 10am – 5pm
Trail Location: Old Barn Studios, Ruthwaite, Ireby, Wigton, Cumbria, CA7 1HG. The studio is at the top of the village – don’t go down the road into Ruthwaite. From Keswick: A591 to Castle Inn signpost Bassenthwaite (7 miles). Turn right signpost Ireby (4 miles) opposite bus shelter. From Carlisle: Across Caldbeck fell, through Uldale, down hill, first right, then right again. A696 turn left signpost Boltongate. Follow road straight through Ireby to Ruthwaite.

My work has always had a strong figurative element, with particular emphasis on facial expressions. I work on a small scale, creating miniature portraits in clay and am currently working in porcelain, discovering the textures and intensity of colours available with this medium.

Over several decades I have focused on developing textile techniques that creatively reuse materials. My work ranges from scarves and bags to rugs and sculptures. I now pass on those techniques in an annual, varied programme of textile courses at my workshop in Brigham.

Where to view my work or meet me in person outside the Art Trail:
I have a permanent outdoor display of textile sculptures in Rydal Hall grounds and Woodland. I open my gallery at Brigham on Sundays in November and December. Contact me for more details about textile courses.

Natalie Burns
T: 07825 340585  E: notabenepoetry@gmail.com  www.natalieburns.co.uk
Trail Opening: 11am-4pm every day except Mon and Tues. I will be there working on Sat 15th, Sun 16th, Wed 19th, Thurs 20th, Fri 21st and Sun 23rd. On Sat 22nd I will be in Cockermouth United Reform Church from 10am to 4:30pm
Trail Location: Florence Mine, Egremont, CA22 2NR. Signposted from the roundabout south of Egremont. I will be in the Café space working during the week. There is an exhibition in the main room of work by Anna Chambers. Also the opportunity to see the work, and buy the materials made by the Florence Paintmakers.
My art work is inspired by the landscape of west Cumbria. I enjoy using a variety of materials to create colourful contemporary work. I paint trees with acrylics and a seasponge, mountains and lakes with Derwent graphik line painters, local buildings in pen and wash and create seascapes in collage. Playing is a large part of my process, and I will be demonstrating throughout the week.

Keep an eye out for our Art Trail signs which mark the way to our venues and studios
