

127 MILLION TERMINAL PASSENGERS* AT LONDON AIRPORTS IN 2010

*In 2010, more than 127,200,000 passengers - twice the number of UK population, set foot on London airports. However, not all of them came to the capital, and some haven't even left the terminals.

PASSENGERS

LONDON AIRPORTS IN 2000 vs 2010

2000

In 2000 Heathrow and Gatwick handled 96.2 million people - 83% of all visitors coming to London airports. The remaining three airports had less than 20 million visitors.

2010

In 2010 the percentage of all visitors handled by two main airports fell to 76% - despite a slight increase in the number of visitors. The three smaller airports welcomed 30 million people - an increase of 50% compared to 2000.

FLIGHTS & PASSENGERS

London airports receive roughly 59% of all passengers and 78% of air freight coming to the UK but only 44% of all flights.

INTERNATIONAL PASSENGERS

International passenger movement from and to London airports is dominated by Europe with 74 million passengers, followed by North America at 19, Middle East and Asia at 8 million.

Top 10 destinations for passengers from and to London airports are listed below. It's important to note that these are the direct destinations of planes carrying passengers from or to London airports, and not final destinations of passengers. Hence absence of destinations which have stopovers on the way - such as Australia - and hence the high position of travel hubs like the US or UAE.

1. United States	13,871,000
2. Spain	12,242,000
3. Germany	8,311,000
4. Italy	7,833,000
5. France	5,639,000
6. Ireland	5,425,000
7. Canada	4,929,000
8. Switzerland	3,982,000
9. Netherlands	3,140,000
10. UAE	2,922,000