COUNTRYSIDE IS

BRITAIN

Travelling can be a bittersweet experience sometimes. The excitement of somewhere new is worn out by a difficult welcome, unfriendly streets and even more unfriendly residents. But what about when you bypass a city and get straight to its heart - to a place where English is spoken as well as a language centuries old, and where good times and a laugh are as warm as the welcome visitors receive in the GREAT British countryside.

DAY ONE

Arrival in Cardiff. The Welsh capital has many attractions. Discover 2000 years of history at Cardiff Castle, behind the scenes at Wales' most iconic new building the Millennium Stadium, National Gallery of Wales, and many other historic and cultural gems.

DAY TWO

Travel through the dramatic unspoiled landscape to Pistyll Rhoadr, the highest waterfall in Britain and one of Wales' natural wonders. You explore the waterfall and take the path to the top. You continue on through the breathtaking Snowdonia National Park to the Welsh White Water Centre where you can take part in an exhilarating White Water Rafting trip down the river Tryweryn.

Then visit Conwy Castle, considered by UNESCO as one of "the finest examples of late 13th century and early 14th century military architecture in Europe", it is classed as a World Heritage site. As a contrast you can also visit the smallest house in Britain which is in the town of Conwy.

DAY THREE

Today sees you in the formidable mountains of the Snowdonia National Park where you climb to the summit of Mount Snowdon the highest Mountain in Britain outside of Scotland. There are several major routes to the Summit, not forgetting the Snowdon Mountain Railway!

Then it is on to historic town of Caernarfon, This 13th Century Fortified Town and is a world heritage site. You visit the castle built by Edward the 1st in 1283. Travel to the Wild West coast to the rugged and awe inspiring scenery of the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park.

DAY FOUR

Today you will take part in "Coasteering", The West Wales Adventure sport. Using the breathtaking sea cliffs and natural rock caves and bays, you climb, swim, jump and traverse your way around the fantastic coastline.

DAY FIVE

Today you are on your way back to Cardiff calling into Carreg Cennen Castle en route, which is a 14th Century hilltop fort within the scenic beauty of the Brecon Beacons National Park. The Castle is perched high on a limestone bluff overlooking the valley of the river Cennen. Take a torch and check out the cave dungeon below. From here you travel back through the South Wales Valleys. Depart Wales.
