The background of the entire image is a dense, vibrant green moss. The moss is composed of many small, rounded, and slightly irregular clumps that are packed closely together, creating a rich, textured appearance. The color is a deep, natural green, with some variations in tone due to the lighting and the density of the moss. Overlaid on this background is the text 'BROOKS & Co' in a white, serif font. The text is positioned in the lower half of the image, centered horizontally. The 'BROOKS' part is in a larger, all-caps font, while '& Co' is in a smaller, all-caps font. The overall effect is one of natural beauty and tranquility, suggesting a connection to nature and relaxation.
