DESCRIPTION

89 Ranelagh Road comprises a mid-terrace pre-'63 period building, three storeys over basement, extending to approximately 3,132 sq ft (GIA).

The property is arranged as 11 self-contained apartments, comprising five studios and six one-bedroom units.

This is an attractive building with a front elevation that features granite entrance steps leading to the main door. The front forecourt provides on-site surface car parking, while additional bicycle storage is available at basement level.

Internally, the property retains several period features, including generous ceiling heights, decorative corncicing at entrance-hall level and a timber staircase.

The apartments are well configured, incorporating defined living, bedroom and kitchen areas, along with WC and shower facilities.

To the rear, there is an enclosed garden providing separate laundry facilities and usable private outdoor space.
