Paddy Murray Auctioneers are delighted to bring to the market, a truly unique opportunity to acquire, The Old National School in Crossmahon. Dating back to 1887, the property is steeped in history and has great character both inside and out. From the limestone date plaque at the front of the building to the two wrought iron entrance gates, one for boys and one for the girls, and to the full height ceilings inside. This fabulous old building can be sold subject to planning permission to convert to a residential home, and what a home it would make ! Located just 3km from Bandon town, in the much sought after enclave of Crossmahon this property would make for a stunning home, all in the right hands of course. But this property is not for the faint hearted and any buyer would want to have their “homework” done before hand.
