Mount Juliet - Renowned Estate. When you pass through the gates of Mount Juliet you are in a different world. Mount Juliet House is a magnificent Georgian mansion, named by the Earl of Carrick after his wife Juliana, always known as Juliet. Their home set on a hill overlooking the River Nore evokes a feeling of old fashioned graciousness.

Steeped in heritage, Mount Juliet is Ireland's leading country estate and enjoys a strong family culture, whilst maintaining the highest level of service and hospitality for which Mount Juliet is internationally renowned.

A feeling of period opulence is present in all of the reception rooms in Mount Juliet House. The panelled walls of the Tetrarch Bar recall a glorious equestrian past. The award winning Michelin Star Lady Helen Dining Room is unique both for the panoramic views it enjoys over the Estate and the River Nore, and for its outstanding cuisine.

Close to the newly-built Club House, the Equestrian Centre stables horses and ponies which are available for basic and advanced tuition and show jumping. Mount Juliet provides an exhilarating equestrian experience. In a country famous for the quality of its angling, it is still rare for visitors to achieve the combination of delights found along the banks and in the clear waters of the rivers that meander through Mount Juliet Estate.

Atlantic Salmon and brown trout angling guarantee an exhilarating experience. There are other activities such as archery, clay pigeon shooting, tennis, croquet, cycling and walking trails.
