

ACTIVATION OF LICENSE KEY

For installation and activation of the plugin you need to login with the same user name (User account) which will be used for further work with the program.

At the first start of the paid version of the MeteorCalc SL, it will be offered to you to activate the license key file. You need to perform the following steps to activate the MeteorCalc SL :

MeteorCalc SL activation

1. Check that you are in the system with the same user name that you will work with the program in the future;
2. Save the key file you received from a reseller to any place on your computer, that can be accessed;
3. In the first activation window (Key-file saving) specify the path to the saved key file and press the "OK" button;
4. In the second activation window (Key-file registration) press the "Visit to site" button;
5. On the web page press the "Get activation code" button and copy (Ctrl+Copy) the received activation code to the corresponding field on the second activation window (Ctrl+Paste). Press the "OK" button to finish the activation procedure.

The activation code can also be sent to your email (please, select the corresponding check-box on the activation web page).
