

Notice of right to cancel

As part of the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013:

- The customer has a right to cancel this contract starting 14 days from the day this contract is made and to have any deposits returned provided the customer has informed the trader in writing or by using the cancellation form on the next page.
- If a customer has agreed in writing to the service being started within the 14 day cancellation period they can still cancel but the trader shall be entitled to payment for all works completed up until the date of cancellation. (If the contract was agreed at the trader's premises then this right may not apply. Please see our business guidance for more information.)

Optional Customer Cancellation Notice form

If you wish to cancel the contract you must do so in writing and deliver personally or send (email or post) the cancellation to the person named on the next page within 14 days of the date of the contract. You may use the form if you want to but you do not have to complete.

Detach and return this form only if you wish to cancel the contract.
