

Scottish Campaigns and Representation Staff Network11-4, Tuesday 24 October*NUS Scotland, 1 Papermill Wynd, McDonald Road, Edinburgh, EH7 4QL

To register to attend please contact events@nus-scotland.org.uk by Tuesday 17 October. Please make known any dietary and access requirements when registering.

11.00	Welcome and introductions
11.20	Working with officers We'll discuss the best ways to develop a great working relationship with elected student officers and how to overcome some of the challenges of working with officers.
13.00	Lunch NUS Scotland will provide lunch, please make any dietary requirements known when you register to attend.
13.30	Liberation history months and beyond During this session everyone can share ideas about celebrating the liberation history months and other projects that liberation officers or groups on campus are leading throughout the year. Bring along some printed examples or email them to us in advance and we'll make a display for the meeting.
14.00	Student Support Review update NUS Scotland has played a crucial role in calling for a review of financial student support for Scottish students. As the recommendations of the review are due to be released this Autumn we'll introduce our involvement in the review so far and the next steps in improving student financial support.
14.30	Problem Solving This will be an opportunity to discuss with colleagues from across the sector any challenges you or your association is currently facing, and to get advice and comments from colleagues in similar roles in other associations, in a structured way. Come along with some ideas of issues it may be useful to discuss, and together as a group we will help to address some mutual challenges.
15.30	Developing the Network We'll spend the last 30 minutes of the day discussing how to take the Scottish Campaigns and Representation Staff Network forward including future discussion topics and location.
16.00	Close

If you'd like to continue to be kept in the loop about forthcoming meetings of the network you can join our online mailing list at www.jiscmail.ac.uk/SCOTCAMREP. This mailing list will also be an opportunity for staff who have remits relating to policy, campaigns, democracy and representation to share best practice and keep up to date with the work of others in the sector who have similar roles.
