

#BeingBlackMeans

“#BeingBlackMeans being part of such a vibrant and resilient community. Despite the adversaries we’ve faced as a people, black people around the world remain strong, creative and unapologetic. It’s so valuable to have this time of year, Black History Month, to celebrate precisely that.”

nus scotland black students