

#BeingBlackMeans

“#BeingBlackMeans to be someone who is easily forgotten regardless of being equal or more competent to the other kind. It also calls for harmony, togetherness and acknowledging the fact that a change could only be brought if we all lead TOGETHER and never stop. Being Black is a constant reminder of the phrase “Unity in diversity” ... our actions towards the struggle for equality will not be limit since WE ARE THE “LIMIT”!!!”

- Franklin Jacob