

CAMPUS GUIDE

Manchester

All Saints, on Oxford Road in Manchester city centre, is the largest Manchester Met campus and is home to the main Students' Union building. It's a good area to campaign; over a third of students study here meaning a high concentration of students in a small area.

SUGGESTED PLACES & TIMES TO CAMPAIGN

Geoffrey Manton ground floor Atrium café at lunch time and central lobby between lectures. Posters along the stairs are a great place to go in this building (don't forget to get permission).

Benzie Building, The Art School has some great spaces including the Holden Gallery café and social space (11:00-14:00) and of course the Art School Café. Be careful not to confuse social spaces with open plan working areas.

John Dalton ground floor Food Zone (between 11:00-14:00). A busy building with lots of footfall. Make sure you speak to students in this busy part of the building.

The Union has a large reception area to campaign in and the events hall is a busy social space throughout the day (11:00 – 16:00)

The Salutation Pub lunchtimes and evenings

New Business School main atrium, Hub Café and Hub Kitchen area throughout the day (opening hours are 08:00 until 20:00). This is the busiest building on campus, the atriums are great places to talk to students and constantly busy. Pull up a seat and have a chat with large groups in the atrium.

Birley Campus located just a five minute walk from All Saints Park. There are two faculties housed in one building with lots of places to talk to Students. Spanish Steps – The feature steps when you walk into Birley Building is a great place to chat with students.

Halls knocks are another useful way of reaching out to Manchester Met students. Make a note of halls managers details and contact to ensure you are permitted to campaign at these premises.
