3. Delivery

1. At certain points in the year, leatherjackets can be found in the turf. Typical pesticides which have traditionally be used to treat these are no longer available, they will however hatch and fly away. Leatherjackets found in the turf are not valid grounds for a refund or product replacement.
2. The company will make every effort to deliver turf on the agreed date, but if for any reason the company is unable to deliver then no liability whether in damages or otherwise for delay of whole or any part of the goods ordered arising from any cause will be accepted.

4. The company will not accept any liability for damages to property caused during delivery.
5. Any additional charges incurred during delivery (i.e. parking charges, etc) will be at the liability of the customer.
6. If the company, or its agent cannot gain access to the delivery address then additional costs may be incurred. Deliveries are made using large vehicles, typically 18 tonne wagons, and it is the customers responsibility to inform the company if there may be an access problem. In such cases that delivery, in the opinion of the company is not possible, then the company reserves the right to cancel the order.

The company must be informed of any possible access problems before the goods have been dispatched.

7. Delivery vehicles use tail lift offloading, and it must be emphasised that the delivery vehicle must be able to park in the area where the delivery is to be made. A pallet truck is then used to manoeuvre the goods off the tail lift to the kerbside delivery point. The customer, or somebody appointed by the customer, should be at the delivery point to accept the delivery. The delivery drivers are only contracted to deliver the goods to the kerbside. The goods will be palletised and shrink wrapped.

If you have any concerns over the delivery you must contact the company before the goods have been dispatched.
9. Whilst every effort will be made to carry out any delivery instructions passed on, this is not always possible. Any instructions left for delivery are at the discretion of the driver and do not waive the standard kerbside terms and conditions.
10. Deliveries requested AM are to be delivered before 13:00 and PM deliveries after 12:00. Failure to meet these times will result in a refund for the extra cost paid for AM or PM. The actual time of delivery must be written on the delivery note and signed for. If the drop is requested without a signature no refund can be applied. Orders of goods which are liable to deteriorate or expire rapidly cannot be cancelled if they are still delivered on the selected delivery date. Anytime deliveries are usually between 8am and 6pm. We are not responsible for delays outside our control.
11. Any shortfall in the quantity delivered, or damages to the product, must be written on the delivery note at the time of delivery.
