

Can you help us to bring South Gloucestershire's LGBTQ history to life?

Gloucestershire Archives collects, preserves and makes South Gloucestershire's history accessible to current and future generations.

Historically LGBTQ lives have been invisible in all but a few legal documents. We are keen to ensure that the Archives' collections are representative of the lives of all residents, and we would like your help to add these important and powerful stories to the County's recorded history.

Between December 2013 and March 2014 we are keen to meet with lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender residents (and anyone else who self-identifies on the queer spectrum) to gather stories and memories of life in South Gloucestershire. This is an expanded project to add previously hidden voices to our collections, so please do get in touch if you would like to help us showcase the contribution of LGBTQ lives to the County's past, present and future.

If you would like to take part in the LGBTQ History project, please contact Sam Bairstow by email at sam.bairstow@gloucestershire.gov.uk, by telephone on 01452 425297, or by writing to Gloucestershire Archives, Clarence Row, Alvin Street, Gloucester, GL1 3DW. You can also download more information from our website:

<http://www.gloucestershire.gov.uk/archives/article/115227/LGBTQ-History-at-Gloucestershire-Archives>

We look forward to hearing from you!