

BIRDEE

Throughout nearly a decade of activity in dance music, disco don Birdee has toured the world from Australia to China, played the most prestigious venues and festivals in the UK and Europe, collected support from the world's biggest players, and picked up an award for best breakthrough DJ at London's Fabric. Initially snapped up by Fatboy Slim's Southern Fried Records, he has remixed Malente, Louis La Roche, Marcos Valle and Mason amongst others.

His music is supported by a veritable who's who of dance music: Fatboy Slim, Pete Herbert, Vanilla Ace, Yam Who?, Luke Million and Ghosts Of Venice have all been regularly spinning Birdee tracks, while BBC Radio 1, Kiss FM, Capital Radio and KCRW have also shown their love.

His breakthrough single "Shake It" was licensed to the Cream Ibiza 2011 compilation cd and received several plays on BBC Radio 1.

In 2016, the Three Sides Of Love EP on Youth Control, put Birdee firmly on the disco map - and was followed by the Love EP and the most recent single Give Into Love, both on London-based ISM Records. The favourable reviews have been pouring in - the Give Into Love EP was featured and reviewed by Mixmag, named as "one of the disco smashes of the year", while his Aeroplane remix on Glitterbox entered the Traxsource top 10.

At the beginning of 2018 Birdee released the massively infectious Love Cuts EP to huge praise from the likes of Groove Armada, Ashley Beedle and Unity mate Dr Packer. He also made exclusive appearances in London, Milan and Reykjavik on a winter European tour.

With lots more material lined up for release and another European tour taking shape for summer, 2018 is looking very bright for Birdee!
