HANNAH JAMES

Biography

Hannah is a mesmerising solo performer. Her solo shows incorporate all of her disciplines – song, dance and accordion playing, punctuated by her understated, dry wit and charming story telling.

Her bassy accordion style, and characterful, clear voice are underpinned by powerful foot percussion – close your eyes and you could be listening to a full band.

She is comfortable playing in small intimate venues but her full sound and energetic performance style can captivate audiences in much larger spaces.
