

Andrej Hovrin

Pianist

The pianist Andrej Hovrin, born in Samara (Russia), studied at the music academies in Petrozavodsk and Stuttgart.

In addition to his work as an accompanist and language coach for Russian, Andrej Hovrin has travelled throughout Europe and the USA as Lied-accompanist. He accompanies at international master classes, such as the opera studio of the Staatsoper Unter den Linden in Berlin, the Mozarteum Summer Academy in Salzburg and the Härmösand Opera Academy (Sweden). Andrej Hovrin is regularly collaborating with the European Voice Competition DEBUT and the International Voice Competition of the Kammeroper Schloss Weikersheim. Other singing courses have taken Andrej Hovrin to Iceland, France, Greece and the USA.

He works with renowned singing teachers such as Julia Hamari, George Shirley, Vladimir Chernov, Luba Orgonasova, Mya Besselink, Neil Semer, Roberta Cunningham, John Norris, Monika Bürgener, Michaela Krämer, Thomas J. Meyer, Kerstin Schötteldreier and Caroline Stein.

Guest performances have taken Andrej Hovrin to the Bremen Theatre, the Aalto-Musiktheater Essen, the Konzerthaus Berlin, the La Monnaie Opera in Brussels, the Mainfranken Theater Würzburg, the Teatro Arriaga in Bilbao, the National Theatre in Abu Dhabi, the Megaron Athens Concert Hall, the Greek National Opera in Athens, the Stuttgart State Opera, the Kammeroper Schloss Rheinsberg, the Komische Oper Berlin and numerous festivals. With the production of Schönberg's Erwartung (director: Calixto Bieito) and the Lithuanian soprano Ausrine Stundyte, he has made guest appearances as pianist and musical director in Spain, Lithuania and Italy.

He is professor at the music academies in Hanover, Petrozavodsk and Würzburg.

11/2024